

Energy and Environment Seminar Programme

Lent Term 2011

Judge Business School

Seminars start at 12:30pm. Please note the different rooms

- 24th January Raphael Heffron (EPRG) Romanian Nuclear New Build: Progress Amidst Turbulence Nadia Chernenko (EPRG) Modelling Market Power on the Russian Electricity Market under Reform Castle Teaching Room
- 31st January William Nuttall (EPRG) Nuclear Energy, Nuclear Research and Global Security: Some observations Castle Teaching Room
- 7th February Michael Pollitt (EPRG) Lessons from the History of Electricity System Operation Castle Teaching Room
- 14th February Olaf Corry & David Reiner (EPRG) Green Activist Understandings of CCS as a Climate Change Technology Meade Room, Faculty of Economics - note venue change
- 21st February Julian Chevallier (University Paris Dauphine) Evaluating the Carbon-Macroeconomy Relationship Room W2.02 - note room change
- 28th February Sonja Klinsky (University of British Columbia) Vinaigrette or Oil and Vinegar? Comparing public rationales for justice trade-offs in mitigation and adaptation climate policy dilemmas Castle Teaching Room – note this session finishes at 13:30
- 7th March Michael Grubb (EPRG) Energy-environment transitions and the three domains of decision-analysis Castle Teaching Room – note this session finishes at 13:30
- 14th March Laura Platchkov (EPRG) Do local factors matter for local energy? Some insights from CHP-DH in England Pierre Noel (EPRG) China and Middle-East Energy Castle Teaching Room